

Membership at the Pence

The Pence Gallery strives to support the talent of local artists. Two annual exhibits: the Community Hang-up and the City of Davis Small Works exhibition, center on the display of work by artists residing in Yolo County.

Exhibits highlight both individual well-established regional artists and emerging artists. Over 16 exhibits annually display works in all media, from contemporary to ancient.

Active Learning in the Arts

Visitors to the Pence can participate in hands-on art projects, lectures, and tours that spark their imagination and fuel their interest in the arts.

- 1 Students gain skills in problem solving and creative thinking through the ArtSmart program
- 2 Families learn together while experiencing art from different cultures and processes in the Saturday family art program, KidsCreate
- 3 Artist Talks & Curator Talks allow the public to dialogue directly with artists and experts

Why membership?

Become a member of the Pence Gallery to experience special programs and events to spark your interest and knowledge of art. As a member, participate in art classes, meet new people, and support local artists, while staying on top of the latest information in the arts. Each member receives a quarterly newsletter detailing current exhibits and classes, as well as invitations to monthly receptions.
